George Smith who lives on the place where Hester formerly resided, is about sixty years old - his wife nearly the same age and both were the servants of the late W<sup>m</sup>. Lewis of St. Royal - It was her Desire they should be permitted, after her death, to reside with whom they pleased, and at their request I received them, and placed them, where they now live free from rent, that they might by their own industry support themselves. 1. Nov. 1799
