

Let the Records Speak: African American History at the Loudoun County Courthouse

A virtual program on February 16, 2022, at 6:30 PM

Go to: <https://www.loudoun.gov/clerk/archives>

African American history is intertwined with the Courthouse's history through its laws and legal records, actions by judges and juries, and activities held on the grounds.

Learn about the new brochure that documents the historic record from 1757 through the present day.

Presented by:

Gary Clemens
Clerk of the Circuit Court
Historic Records Division

The Black History
Committee of the Friends of the Thomas Balch Library

