Community Leadership and Organization

Numerous churches, mutual aid societies, and other formal organizations were formed after the Civil War. Fraternal organizations such as the Mt. Gap Odd Fellows provided fellowship, community service, and aid to its members. The precise location of the Mt. Gap Odd Fellows Lodge has not been determined, but it was in the vicinity of Gap Road and Gleedsville Road, near Oatlands.

Oddfellows, Lodge #2047, Mt. Gap, 7 March 1898