

National Underground Network to Freedom

Court cases involving freedom seekers and abolitionists were tried in the second courthouse (1811-1894). As a result of their advocacy for freedom, the courthouse was designated by the National Park Service in 2003 as an Underground Railroad Network to Freedom site.

Certificate of Acceptance, Underground Railroad Network to Freedom site

For more information about the Network to Freedom Program, click here:

<https://www.nps.gov/orgs/1205/index.htm>