

PRESERVING OUR HERITAGE: LOUDOUN'S REVOLUTIONARY WAR COURT RECORDS

Friday, July 7
6-8pm

The Old Courthouse
18 East Market Street
Leesburg

LOUDOUN COUNTY
VIRGINIA₂₅₀
AMERICAN REVOLUTION

Join us for 1st Friday in Leesburg as we celebrate 266 years of conserving and preserving the legal records of Loudoun County. Original documents will be on display.

What happened on August 12, 1776?

Who was Daniel Coleman?

How did Loudoun's women support the war?

Who were the "non-conformists"?

How have we preserved our Revolutionary War papers?

Founding Father's Document Surprise!

Find out on July 7th!

Presented by Gary Clemens, Clerk of the Circuit Court, and the Historic Records Division Team

Exhibitors:

Virginia Daughters of the American Revolution

Sons of the American Revolution – John Champe Chapter

Loudoun County 250th Committee

The program is free and open to the public.
clerks-archives@loudoun.gov