Time: 6:00PM to 8:00PM

Where: Charles Hamilton Houston Courthouse

In recognition of National Historic Preservation Month, Gary M. Clemen, Clerk of the Circuit Court is hosting a May First Friday Program focused on the preservation of Loudoun County's Historic Court Records. Visitors will learn how valuable court papers have been preserved for many centuries, read about historic events reflected in these documents and observe how deputy clerks who specialize in preservation continue conservation and preservation efforts today. Visitors can observe techniques using a spa tank, flat filing processes and mending protocols and other methods deployed to preserve Loudoun history for future generations. Court records included in this exhibition include the 1759 Plan of Leesburg, Land Tax Books, 19th-century land tax books, Revolutionary War-era records, and much, much more.

Admission to this event is free to the public so we hope you will stop by and celebrate National Historic Preservation Month with us.
