

COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA
COUNTY OF LOUDOUN
BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

Loudoun County Board of Supervisors
Resolution of Commendation
Dr. John Brewer the "Citizen of the Year" for 2008

WHEREAS, Dr. John Brewer has been the principal of Dominion High School since its opening six years ago where he has served as a positive role model for his students, exemplifying kindness, competency, professionalism, and reliability. Dr. Brewer always has been someone Dominion students can count on.

WHEREAS, Dr. Brewer has created an intimate, close-knit community school environment through the use of small academic teams and placing an emphasis on extracurricular activities. The implementation of the Clubhouse, where students meet with their peers, has led to a drop in the failure rate for all students during their four years at Dominion High School;

WHEREAS, Dr. Brewer's small school philosophy and Dominion's personal learning environment have resulted in students working harder to achieve their goals;

WHEREAS, in 2008, forty-three seniors at Dominion High School were honored for academic excellence – earning a 4.0 or higher grade point average – the second highest among Loudoun County's high schools;

WHEREAS, Dr. Brewer's favorite part of his work is interacting with the students at Dominion High School, where everyone is proud to be a Titan;

WHEREAS, Dr. Brewer has been named the Loudoun Times-Mirror's "Citizen of the Year" for 2008;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT, the Loudoun County Board of Supervisors does hereby recognize Dr. John Brewer as the Loudoun Times-Mirror's "Citizen of the Year" for 2008, and commend him for his outstanding leadership, dedication, and tireless efforts on behalf of Dominion High School students and Loudoun County Public Schools.
