Clerk of Circuit Court Offers September History Program

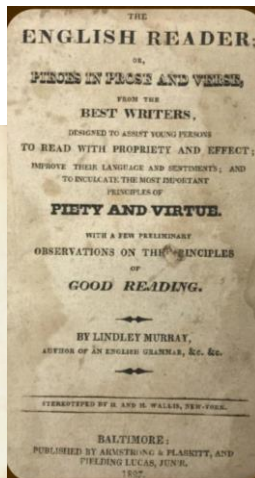

Gary Clemens, the Clerk of the Circuit Court is pleased to announce the next historic records program offered by the Clerk's Historic Records Division. This next program, entitled "Back to School: Education in Loudoun's Past" will be offered on September 9, 2021, from 6:30 to 8:30 PM. This program will be a virtual program. The Clerk's Office has offered unique education programs for several years and is pleased to offer this unique program as a new school year commences in Loudoun County.

The Clerk's Historic Records team, in partnership with the Edwin Washington Project (EDW) and Thomas Balch Library (Balch) will offer this virtual program. Joining Eric Larson, the Clerk's Historic Records Manager is Larry Roeder from the EDW and Laura Christiansen from Balch. This program will discuss the schooling of male and female students from 1700s to the establishment of a free education system in Loudoun County. The program will include images of rare documents and papers from their respective collections.
